Applying to be in an L-LC is easy!

The Living-Learning Community application is part of the University at Albany’s housing application process, available through your MyUAlbany account.

- Select the community you would like to join from the list
- Select your potential major (including “undecided”), so we can be sure the L-LC is a good fit for you
- Tell us why you would like to be a member of the L-LC you have chosen and how you can contribute to that particular community

Students who are selected to be members of their chosen L-LC will be notified via university email beginning in late June.

World of History

“The L-LC experience provides its incoming Freshmen with a sense of belonging as soon as they arrive on campus.”

- Professor Joseph Sheehan

Check us out on our All World: UAlbany Living Learning Communities Facebook page!
Recent national studies have shown that living-learning communities positively impact student success!

World of History
The World of History is a Living-Learning Community for incoming freshmen who are passionate about studying the past and its relevance for today’s world. Its goals are to build an ongoing community of learners, to acquaint students with the interests of faculty members, and to help build skills and resources to succeed in the History major or minor. The world of History is perfect for intended history majors, and incoming freshmen from other majors who share a passion for studying the past. As a member of the World of History you may find yourself participating in activities such as:

- Field trips to visit local historic resources
- Museum visits
- Guest speaker series
- Social gatherings with your L-LC friends
- Career panels
- Community service

The World of History is ideal for intended history majors. This L-LC may also be of interest to history minors, and anthropology or sociology majors.

Living
As a member of the World of History you will live with other incoming freshmen who share your interest in history.

Learning
You will take one or two of your classes together in the fall and spring semesters of your freshman year, and attend co-curricular events together as a community.

Community
As a member of an L-LC you will have a built-in community of friends and colleagues right from the start!

- Friends: Study and socialize with fellow L-LC members. Tackle those first-year courses with your friends by forming study groups where you live!
- World Ambassadors: Learn the ropes from a peer selected from last year’s most engaged L-LC students.
- Community Assistant: Meet weekly with an upperclass/graduate student to plan or attend social, academic, and community service events.
- Lead Faculty Member: Get to know a member of the faculty outside of the classroom at weekly lunches in your own dining hall!
- Leadership Opportunities: Become a World Representative. Go on to assume a campus-wide leadership role.

Responsibilities of an L-LC Member
- Register for the designated L-LC classes
- Attend lunch with the lead faculty member, and weekly L-LC meetings/activities with the Community Assistant
- Participate in fun All-World Events with the other L-LCs (typically two per semester).
- Perform community service with your L-LC each semester
- Be a vital and engaged member of the University at Albany community
