Applying to be in an L-LC is easy!

The Living-Learning Community application is part of the University at Albany’s housing application process, available through your MyUAlbany account.

- Select the community you would like to join from the list
- Select your potential major (including “undecided”), so we can be sure the L-LC is a good fit for you
- Tell us why you would like to be a member of the L-LC you have chosen and how you can contribute to that particular community

Students who are selected to be members of their chosen L-LC will be notified via university email beginning in late June.

Learn Where You Live
Recent national studies have shown that living-learning communities positively impact student success!

World of History

The World of History is a Living-Learning Community for incoming freshmen who are passionate about studying the past and its relevance for today's world. Its goals are to build an ongoing community of learners, to acquaint students with how a love of history opens pathways to the future, and to help build skills and resources to succeed at the University at Albany. The world of History is perfect for intended history majors, and incoming freshmen from other majors who share a passion for history. As a member of the World of History you may find yourself participating in activities such as:

- Field trips to local museums
- Learning about the history of Albany
- Guest speaker series
- Social gatherings with your L-LC friends
- Career panels
- Community service

The World of History is ideal for intended history majors. This L-LC may also be of interest to history minors, political science, anthropology and sociology majors.

Living

As a member of the World of History you will live with other incoming freshmen who share your interest in history.

Learning

You will take one or two of your classes together in the fall and spring semesters of your freshman year, and attend co-curricular events together as a community.

Community

As a member of an L-LC you will have a built-in community of friends and colleagues right from the start!

Friends: Study and socialize with fellow L-LC members. Tackle those first-year courses with your friends by forming study groups where you live!

World Ambassadors: Learn the ropes from a peer selected from last year’s most engaged L-LC students.

Community Assistant: Meet weekly with an upperclass/graduate student to plan or attend social, academic, and community service events.

Lead Faculty Member: Get to know a member of the faculty outside of the classroom at weekly lunches in your own dining hall!

Academic Advisor: The World of History has its own Academic Advisor to help you plan your UAlbany pathway to success.

Leadership Opportunities: Become a World Representative. Go on to assume a campus-wide leadership role.
