Applying to be in an L-LC is easy!

The Living-Learning Community application is part of the University at Albany’s housing application process, available through your MyUAlbany account.

- Select the community you would like to join from the list
- Select your potential major (including “undecided”), so we can be sure the L-LC is a good fit for you
- Tell us why you would like to be a member of the L-LC you have chosen and how you can contribute to that particular community

Students who are selected to be members of their chosen L-LC will be notified via university email beginning in late June.

Questions about Living-Learning Communities or Student Engagement?
Visit www.albany.edu/student_engagement
Email studentengagement@albany.edu

Questions about housing?
Visit www.albany.edu/housing
Email reslife@albany.edu.

Questions about admissions?
Visit www.albany.edu/admissions
Email ugadmissions@albany.edu
Recent national studies have shown that living-learning communities positively impact student success!

World of Laws and Justice
The World of Laws and Justice is designed for incoming freshmen who are interested in a pre-law experience. Students involved in the World of Laws and Justice will participate in classes and co-curricular activities designed to prepare them for law school and careers in related fields. Students who join the World of Laws and Justice will participate in a variety of activities, including:

- Career panels with representatives from different fields in Laws and Justice
- Panels with UAlbany alumni attending law school
- Social gatherings with your L-LC friends
- Guest speakers
- Mock trials, trivia and game nights
- Study sessions
- Community service

The World of Laws and Justice is open to all majors, and is particularly well suited to those who intend to study Criminal Justice, or Political Science.

Living
As a member of the World of Laws and Justice you will live with other incoming freshmen who share your interest in law and law-related fields.

Learning
You will take one or two of your classes together in the fall and spring semesters of your freshman year, and attend co-curricular events together as a community.

Community
As a member of an L-LC you will have a built-in community of friends and colleagues right from the start!

- Friends: Study and socialize with fellow L-LC members. Tackle those first-year courses with your friends by forming study groups where you live!
- World Ambassadors: Learn the ropes from a peer selected from last year’s most engaged L-LC students.
- Community Assistant: Meet weekly with an upperclass/graduate student to plan or attend social, academic, and community service events.
- Lead Faculty Member: Get to know a member of the faculty outside of the classroom at weekly lunches in your own dining hall!
- Academic Advisor: The World of Laws and Justice has its own Academic Advisor to help you plan your UAlbany pathway to success.

Responsibilities of an L-LC Member
- Register for the designated L-LC classes
- Attend lunch with the lead faculty member and weekly L-LC meetings/activities with the Community Assistant
- Participate in fun All-World Events with the other L-LCs (typically two per semester).
- Perform community service with your L-LC each semester
- Be a vital and engaged member of the University at Albany community

For more information about the World of Laws and Justice, including classes and activities, or to learn more about the responsibilities of being in an L-LC, please visit our website.

www.albany.edu/student_engagement

Faculty interaction outside the classroom is directly linked to student satisfaction and enhanced learning.