The Living-Learning Community application is part of the University at Albany’s housing application process, available through your MyUAlbany account.

- Select the community you would like to join from the list
- Select your potential major (including “undecided”), so we can be sure the L-LC is a good fit for you
- Tell us why you would like to be a member of the L-LC you have chosen and how you can contribute to that particular community

Students who are selected to be members of their chosen L-LC will be notified via university email beginning in late June.

Questions about Living-Learning Communities or Student Engagement?
Visit www.albany.edu/student_engagement
Email transferstudent@albany.edu

Questions about housing?
Visit www.albany.edu/housing
Email reslife@albany.edu

Questions about admissions?
Visit www.albany.edu/admissions
Email ugadmissions@albany.edu
Recent national studies have shown that living-learning communities positively impact student success!

World of New York Politics and Policies

The World of New York Politics and Policies is a unique opportunity for new transfer students who share a passion for politics, government, and public policy to live and learn together in a fun community on campus. Membership in this World is a great way to get to know faculty who specialize in this field and to learn more about University resources that you can utilize to be a successful student here.

Members of this World will participate in fun activities like:

- Field trips to the Capitol
- Tours of legislative buildings
- Live on Alumni Quad in the downtown Albany area to be immersed in New York State government offices and resources
- Weekly meal gatherings with your World
- Study sessions with L-LC friends

This World is open to and ideal for political science and public policy majors who want a more interactive academic experience inside and outside of the classroom.

Living

As a member of the World of New York Politics and Policies you will live with other incoming transfers who share your interest in politics and government.

Learning

You will take one class (Bureaucratic Politics) together in the fall with Dr. Christakis, UAlbany’s Vice President for Student Affairs.

Community

As a member of an L-LC you will have a built-in community of friends and colleagues right from the start!

Friends: Study and socialize with fellow L-LC members. Tackle your major courses with your friends by forming study groups where you live!

Transfer Transition Leader: Meet weekly with an upperclass/graduate student to plan or attend social, academic, and community service events.

Lead Faculty Member: Get to know a member of the faculty outside of the classroom a weekly meal in your own dining hall!

Academic Advisor: The World of New York Politics and Policies has its own Academic Advisor from UAlbany’s Rockefeller College of Public Affairs and Policy to help you plan your UAlbany Pathway to success.

Leadership Opportunities: Become a World Representative. Go on to assume a campus-wide leadership role.

For more information about the World of New York Politics and Policies, including classes and activities, or to learn more about the responsibilities of being in an L-LC, please visit our website.

---

For more information about the World of New York Politics and Policies, including classes and activities, or to learn more about the responsibilities of being in an L-LC, please visit our website.