How to Apply

The Reach for UAlbany Success application is part of the University at Albany’s housing application process, available through your MyUAlbany account.

- Select the Reach group you would like to join from the list
- Tell us why you would like to be a member of the Reach group you have chosen and how you can contribute to that particular community

Students who are selected to be members of their chosen Reach group will be notified via university email beginning in late June.

A residential experience for new Transfer students
Reach for Transfer Success is an incredible opportunity for you to live with and meet other transfer students while discovering together how to become a successful student at the University. This community is open to students of all majors who share a passion for learning more about the University at Albany and how to become involved on campus. As a member of this community you can expect to engage in fun activities like:

- Special orientation and team–building events
- Getting involved with UAlbany activities, clubs, and organizations
- Learning how to utilize UAlbany’s resources to their utmost potential in order to be a successful student
- Exploring opportunities available in downtown Albany
- Getting to know faculty members that can aid you in learning more about a field that interests you
- Learning how to strengthen your academic resume

Community

Reach for Transfer Success community members will have unique opportunities and experiences to get involved at UAlbany and connected to the UAlbany community.

Friends: You will have a built-in community of friends and colleagues right from the start! This makes it easy to form study groups where you live.

Transfer Transition Leader: Meet weekly with an upperclass/graduate student to plan or attend social, academic, and community service events.

Benefits of being a Reach for Transfer Success member

- Gather for meals with your Reach group, and weekly meetings/activities with the Transfer Transition Leader
- Have access to resources that will support your academic success
- Participate in events with other Reach groups
- Perform community service with your Reach group
- Be a vital and engaged member of the University at Albany community
