How to Apply

Applying to be in an L-LC is easy!

The Living-Learning Community application is part of the University at Albany’s housing application process, available through your MyUAlbany account.

✦ Select the community you would like to join from the list
✦ Select your potential major (including “undecided”), so we can be sure the L-LC is a good fit for you
✦ Tell us why you would like to be a member of the L-LC you have chosen and how you can contribute to that particular community

Students who are selected to be members of their chosen L-LC will be notified via university email beginning in late June.

Office of the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education works to provide opportunities and pathways for students to be active and engaged in their studies, both inside and outside the classroom.

Student Engagement

“Living with other motivated freshmen, who have similar interests and courses, puts L-LC students on a team where they can bring out the best in each other right from the start.”
- Shane O’Neil, Community Assistant

Check us out on our All World: UAlbany Living Learning Communities Facebook page!
Recent national studies have shown that living-learning communities positively impact student success!

World of Theatre
The World of Theatre is a World for students from all intended majors who are interested in acting, production, musical theatre, plays, directing, and all aspects of making theatre happen. Students in the World of Theatre will live together and take classes with other students who are also interested in the collaborative process of bringing literature, science, technology and art to the stage. Activities may include:

- Learn from actors, directors, and the technical professionals about all aspects of theatre
- Be involved with the musical production of “Bloody, Bloody Andrew Jackson” - planned for Academic year 2015-16
- Tour of the Performing Arts Center—a state of the art facility with 5 different stages
- Enjoy weekly social gatherings with your L-LC friends

The World of Theatre is open to all majors and is perfect for freshmen who intend to major in Theatre or are interested in becoming involved in theatre production while at UAlbany.

Living
As a member of the World of Theatre you will live with other incoming freshmen who share your interest in the arts.

Learning
You will take one or two of your classes together in the fall and spring semesters of your freshman year, and attend co-curricular events together as a community.

Community
As a member of an L-LC you will have a built-in community of friends and colleagues right from the start!

Friends: Study and socialize with fellow L-LC members. Tackle those first-year courses with your friends by forming study groups where you live!

World Ambassadors: Learn the ropes from a peer selected from last year’s most engaged L-LC students.

Community Assistant: Meet weekly with an upperclass/graduate student to plan or attend social, academic, and community service events.

Lead Faculty Member: Get to know a member of the faculty outside of the classroom at weekly lunches in your own dining hall!

Academic Advisor: The World of Theatre has its own Academic Advisor to help you plan your UAlbany pathway to success.

Leadership Opportunities: Become a World Representative. Go on to assume a campus-wide leadership role.

Responsibilities of an L-LC Member
- Register for the designated L-LC classes
- Attend lunch with the lead faculty member and weekly L-LC meetings/activities with the Community Assistant
- Participate in fun All-World Events with the other L-LCs (typically two per semester).
- Perform community service with your L-LC each semester
- Be a vital and engaged member of the University at Albany community
