

STUDENT SUCCESS

spotlight

A series sponsored by the University at Albany's Division of Student Success featuring presentations that "spotlight" the creative and innovative programs and services of units throughout the Division.

Wednesday, November 18, 2009

The University Police Department

FACILITATED BY: J. Frank Wiley, Chief

The University at Albany Police Department will open the doors to the police department through a presentation that focuses on the services, programs and technology that it provides and utilizes while reinforcing its emphasis on community, professionalism and excellence.

The department will announce its programming schedule for the Spring 2010 semester. In addition, police officers and Security Services Assistants will provide an interactive opportunity while emphasizing programs such as RAD or Rape Aggression Defense, Police Mountain Bicycle Patrol, Fatal Vision Alcohol Awareness Program, Information Technology, Security Services and more.

10:00am – 11:30am
Campus Center Assembly Hall
University at Albany

Light refreshments (coffee and water) will be served.

STUDENT SUCCESS

UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY
State University of New York