CONTENTS

Preface vii

1 Black Students at Predominantly White Colleges and Universities
   The Rhetoric and the Reality 1

2 Educational Choices and a University’s Reputation
   The Importance of Collective Memory 21

3 Confronting White Students
   The Whiteness of University Spaces 49

4 Contending with White Instructors
   “You Can Feel When Someone Wants You Somewhere” 83

5 Administrative Barriers to Student Progress
   “Blocked at Each Little Turn” 115

6 Issues of Recruitment and Retention
   “If They Do Anything, It’s to Encourage You to Leave” 135

7 Racism in Higher Education
   The Need for Change 157

Notes 177

Index 189