

Contents

About the General Editor	vi
Contributors	vii
Foreword	xii
Preface	xv
Introduction	xviii

PART ONE

Teaching Characteristics

1. What Makes a Good Teacher?	2
Peter G. Beidler
2. Stretching Minds: Personal and Academic Aspects of Teaching	13
James W. Vargo
3. Classroom Atmosphere: A Personal Inventory	24
Harvey D. Blankespoor
4. Connecting with Literature: The Art of Involvement	34
Barbara Paul-Emile
5. Relations of Mutual Trust and Objects of Common Interest	44
John David Dawson
6. Motivating and Mentoring: Teaching the Developmental Student	54
Vashti U. Muse

PART TWO

Teaching Practices

7. The Student Who Felt Ugly and How She Played Richard III	66
Martha Andresen
8. Opportunities and Responsibilities: Competence, Creativity, Collaboration, and Caring	78
Sally Phillips

9. Teaching Through the Curriculum: The Development of a Comprehensive Honors Program Anthony J. Lisska	90
10. Managing Discussion in Large Classes J. Dennis Huston	100
11. Suit the Action to the Word: Teaching Minds and Bodies in the College Classroom Michael Flachmann	113
12. Improving Teaching Through Teaching Portfolio Revisions: A Context and Case for Reflective Practice John Zubizarreta	123
13. Creating Global Classrooms Mark C. Taylor	134

PART THREE
Teaching Philosophies

14. The Community in the Classroom/The Classroom in the Community Patrick Parks	148
15. Teaching as Subversion Teofilo F. Ruiz	158
16. A Story Waiting to Be Told: Narratives of Teaching, Scholarship, and Theory Diana Cooper-Clark	166
17. Feminist Pedagogy: A Voice of One's Own Rosemarie Tong	176
18. The Liberal Arts and Civic Education: Grounds for Inspired Teaching Ralph Ketcham	188
19. What Teaching Teaches Me: How the Holocaust Informs My Philosophy of Education John K. Roth	199

PART FOUR

Teaching Teachers: Two Postscripts

20. The Carnegie Professors of the Year: Models for Teaching Success	212
John R. Lough
21. What This Book Teaches Me	226
John K. Roth
Index	233