If you would like to join the World of Criminal Justice you must be majoring, minoring, or strongly considering the major of criminal justice. You must complete the online application (part of the housing application) and commit to the following:

- I will live with other new transfer students on Alumni Quad.
- I will be enrolled in the Criminal Justice 202 class designated for Criminal Justice Transfer students.
- I want to be involved in this UAlbany community and will participate in events with my L-LC.

Students will be notified via university email beginning in late June.

Questions about Living-Learning Communities or Student Engagement?
Visit http://www.albany.edu/transfer_students/
Email transferstudent@albany.edu

Questions about housing?
Visit www.albany.edu/housing
Email reslife@albany.edu

Questions about admissions?
Visit www.albany.edu/admissions
Email ugadmissions@albany.edu
Recent national studies have shown that living-learning communities positively impact student success!

World of Criminal Justice for Transfers

The World of Criminal Justice is designed for new transfer students who are majoring in Criminal Justice. Students involved in the World of Criminal Justice will participate in a class and co-curricular activities designed to prepare them for law school, graduate school, and careers in related fields. Students who join the World of Criminal Justice will participate in a variety of activities, including:

- Career panels with representatives from different fields in Criminal Justice
- Discussions with UAlbany alumni attending law school
- Social gatherings with your L-LC friends
- Guest speakers on cutting edge topics
- Meals with your friends and L-LC faculty
- Mock trials, trivia and game nights
- Study groups and review sessions for criminal justice classes

The World of Criminal Justice is open to all new transfer students who are majoring or minoring in criminal justice.

Living

As a member of the World of Criminal Justice you will live with other incoming transfers who share your interest in criminal justice.

Learning

Participate in CRJ 202 with Professor James Acker in the fall semester. Take CRJ 281 in the spring semester of your first year, and attend co-curricular events together as a community.

Community

As a member of an L-LC you will have a built-in community of friends and colleagues right from the start!

Friends: Study and socialize with fellow L-LC members. Tackle those criminal justice courses with your friends by forming study groups where you live!

Transfer Transition Leader (TTL): Meet weekly with an upperclass/graduate student who transferred to UAlbany and criminal justice major. Attend social, academic, and community service events.

Lead Faculty Member: Get to know the faculty from the School of Criminal Justice outside of the classroom at meals in your own dining hall!

Academic Advisor: Meet with your advisor over lunch and in class. Work together to plan your UAlbany pathway to success.

Leadership Opportunities: Become a Transfer Transition Leader and help new transfer students! Go on to assume a campus-wide leadership role.

Responsibilities of an L-LC Member

- Register for the designated L-LC class
- Attend lunch with the lead faculty member and weekly L-LC meetings/activities with the TTL
- Participate in fun All-World Events with the other L-LCs
- Perform community service with your L-LC each semester
- Be a vital and engaged member of the University at Albany community

For more information about the World of Criminal Justice for transfers including classes and activities, or to learn more about the responsibilities of being in an L-LC, please visit our website.

http://www.albany.edu/transfer_students/