How to Apply

Conditionally accepted students into the School of Business will be invited to apply to the Transfer World of Business and Accounting for Transfers. Those invited must complete the online application (part of the housing application) and commit to the following:

- I will live with other new transfer students on Colonial Quad (on the UAlbany uptown campus).
- I will be enrolled in the Transfer Seminar (a 1-credit seminar) designed just for Transfer World of Business and Accounting for Transfer students.
- I want to be involved in this UAlbany community and will participate in events with my L-LC.

Students who are selected to be members of their chosen L-LC will be notified via university email beginning in late June.

The World of Business & Accounting for Transfers

“The World of Business was the best! It helped us network, build our resumes, and prepare to be Business professionals.”
- Nora Petrucci and Amanda Nieto, Class of 2017

Recent national studies have shown that living-learning communities positively impact student satisfaction and success!

The World of Accounting & Business for Transfers

The World of Accounting & Business for Transfers is designed for incoming transfer students who are planning to major in business or accounting and have been conditionally accepted into the School of Business. Students in this Living-Learning Community live and take a 1-credit transfer seminar on business and accounting with their community, and are introduced to the academic and social expectations of a career in business through co-curricular activities. Some of these events include:

- Sessions to learn about the different tracks in the business school
- Résumé building, guest speakers, professional etiquette, networking, and interview skills workshops
- Meals with your friends and L-LC faculty
- Study groups and review sessions for business and accounting classes
- Career Services presentations on finding and securing internship opportunities
- Meetings with representatives from major accounting firms
- Performing community service together

Living

As a member of the World of Business and Accounting you will live with other incoming transfers who share your interest in business or accounting.

Learning

Participate in a 1-credit seminar together in the fall semester taught by Hany Shawky, Associate Dean, Jason Cotugno, Academic Advisor, and Susan Maloney, Director of Undergraduate Advisement Services for the School of Business.

Community

As a member of an L-LC you will have a built-in community of friends and colleagues right from the start!

Friends: Study and socialize with fellow L-LC members. Tackle those business courses with your friends by forming study groups where you live!

Transfer Transition Leader (TTL): Meet weekly with an upperclass/graduate student who transferred to UAlbany and is a student in the School of Business. Attend social, academic, and community service events.

Lead Faculty Member: Get to know the faculty from the School of Business outside of the classroom at monthly lunches in your own dining hall!

Academic Advisor: Meet with your advisor over lunch and in class. Work together to plan your UAlbany pathway to success.

Leadership Opportunities: Become a Transfer Transition Leader and help new transfer students! Go on to assume a campus-wide leadership role.

Responsibilities of an L-LC Member

- Register for the designated L-LC class
- Attend lunch, L-LC meetings/activities with your community
- Participate in fun All-World Events with other L-LCs and new transfer students.
- Perform community service with your L-LC each semester
- Be a vital and engaged member of the University at Albany community
