2013 Citizen Laureate Awards Call for Nominations

The University at Albany Foundation is currently seeking nominations for the 2013 Citizen Laureate Awards. It is through the Laureate Awards that The Foundation celebrates the mission of the University at Albany – undergraduate and graduate education, research and public service – and the vital role the University plays in the community. Awards are made in two categories and are presented at The Foundation’s Citizen Laureate Awards Dinner, held each year in the fall.

Criteria
Nominees for the Community Laureate Award must have given considerable time and support to a variety of organizations and/or major causes, and have made a significant impact on the quality of life in our community and beyond.

Nominees for the Academic Laureate Award must have a distinguished record of intellectual achievement in both scholarship and teaching. In addition, nominees must have provided outstanding service to their institutions, to the community, and/or to education in general.

Nomination Process
Nominations for Laureates are solicited from the community and area academic institutions. They are evaluated by an advisory committee comprised of members of The University at Albany Foundation and faculty and staff of the University at Albany. Final selections of Laureates are made by representatives of the Board of Directors of The Foundation.

Nominations are currently being accepted in both categories for the 2013 Awards and required nomination forms are attached. Nominations from 2012 will automatically be considered for 2013 and need not be resubmitted. However, updated information is welcome.

Nominations should be sent to:
Citizen Laureate Advisory Committee
c/o Office of University Events
Alumni House Room 119
Albany, NY 12222
(518) 591-8626
events@albany.edu
(electronic submissions are welcome!)

All nominations must be received no later than January 31, 2013.
