12:00 - 12:30 pm	Understanding Climate Change	Presented by Professor Mathias Vuille of the Department of Earth and Atmospheric Sciences. Climate Change is a hot topic of debate, yet its discussion is often dominated by confusion and misconceptions. In this presentation Professor Vuille will emphasize the main points of concern surrounding the climate change debate and highlight what is well established science and what still remains unknown or poorly understood.	Professor Mathias Vuille
12:45 - 1:15 pm	The Plaza and the People: Empire State Plaza as Public Space	Presented by Professor John Pipkin, Department of Geography and Planning. The Empire State Plaza is nearly 50 years old. It tries to speak boldly a timeless language of modernism, but appears now as a period piece, a relic of an unrecoverable alignment of political power and resources in the 1960s. Architecture critics, visitors, and locals have developed a complex love-hate relationship with the plaza over the years. This presentation will explore Albany's megastructure as a public space, through the lens of ideas in contemporary urban design.	Professor John Pipkin
