The Center for Advancement & Understanding of Social Enterprises at the School of Business and The School of Public Health University at Albany

Welcome you to a Symposium on Food Desert/Security “Bringing Together Diverse Voices: Forging a Consensus on Problems and Solutions”

Monday, June 5, 2017
8:30am-3:30pm
Massry Center for Business-151
Light breakfast, lunch, and beverage breaks provided by Rose & Kiernan

Select papers to be published in the Journal of Public Affairs

Web: http://www.albany.edu/cause
Twitter: https://twitter.com/UAlbanyCause
Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/UAlbanyCAUSE
Pinterest: https://www.pinterest.com/UAlbanyCAUSE/
“CAUSE’s purpose is to be a hub of activities that helps entrepreneurs and businesses solve social problems by applying business principles and making effective use of markets.” – Prof. Paul Miesing, Founding Director

http://www.albany.edu/cause/

Itinerary:

8:30-9:15 am  Light refreshments; Welcome by Dr. Darrell Wheeler (UAlbany Interim Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs); A word from our sponsor

9:15-9:45 am  Introduction and Overview by Prof. Paul Miesing (Introduction and Overview; What’s the problem?; Breaking Down the A, B, C’s; What are we Doing?; Overview of Schedule; Diverse Voices; Program Logic Model; Wrap-Up)

9:45-10:30 am  Panel Discussion: Amy Halloran (Unity House of Troy), Perry Jones (Capital City Rescue Mission), James Salengo (Downtown Schenectady Improvement Corp.)

Moderated by Benita Zahn (NewsChannel 13 co-anchor and health reporter)

10:30 am-Noon  Breakouts (working roundtables) with Recorders (assigned): Distribution _____ Education _____ Entrepreneurship _____ Public Policy _____ Urban Planning

Noon-1:30 pm  Lunch; Keynote speaker: Bronwyn Starr (New York State Health Foundation); Networking

1:30-2:30 pm  Plenary session (recorders report out to attendees)

2:30-2:45 pm  Break

2:45-3:30 pm  Thanks and Farewell by Prof. Janine Jurkowski (Next Steps and Follow Up – grants, special issue journal, systems thinking)

There is limited seating — Please rsvp cause@albany.edu by May 15

Let us know if you need a parking pass!

Let us know if you would like access to a Dropbox folder of related files!