All international applicants must document their ability to meet all educational and living expenses for their intended study before the University can issue a Certificate of Eligibility (forms I-20 or IAP-66). Please carefully read the following instructions prior to completing the required affidavit.

Instructions: Part I Please complete items 1 through 4.

Part II In the first column, indicate the sources of your funding. In the columns headed Year 1, 2, 3, and 4, indicate the amount (in US dollars) available for each year of study. Each sponsor must verify these amounts by signing this form as indicated. Supplemental confirming original financial documents must also be included. Photocopies of the supporting documents are not accepted.

All documentation must be dated within three months of the date of receipt in this office. You have been provided with an estimate of annual education and living costs for international students. You must document financial support equal to or greater than this amount. This estimate is subject to change without notice and will usually increase each year.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION

SOURCES OF FUNDS

Personal/Family  Signatures of sponsors on this form. Bank verification on both this form and in a separate statement of account.

Scholarship/Grant  Official scholarship letter from the institution or agency awarding the scholarship. The award letter must contain the name of the applicant, the amount of money available for each year of study, the duration of the award (including beginning and ending dates), the degree and academic field of study for which the award is valid, and the address of the sponsoring agency.

The University at Albany reserves the right to require additional financial documentation and/or pre-payment from applicants whose countries impose currency exchange restrictions or other obstacle to the transfer of currency. Applicants from such countries will be notified of specific requirements when they have submitted complete applications.
