SAVE THE DATE

ANNUAL STATEWIDE AUTISM CONFERENCE, Friday, April 12, 2019

Red Lion Hotel Albany – 205 Wolf Rd, Albany, NY 12205

Join the University at Albany’s Center for Autism and Related Disabilities along with experts in the field of autism for a conference in Albany, NY. Parents, school personnel, and community professionals are invited to attend.

Keynote Presentation:
Impact of Adaptive Behavior on Academic and Classroom Skills and Peer Interactions
Celine Saulnier, Ph.D., Emory University

Breakout Sessions to Include:
Students with Autism Accessing General Education
Rose Iovannone, PhD, BCBA-D, University of South Florida, Tampa

Evidence-Based Social Skills Intervention for Youth with ASD
Laura Corona, Ph.D., Vanderbilt University

Comprehensive Classroom Management Tool
Sara McDaniel, Ph.D., University of Alabama

Tier 3 Problem Solving and Function-Based Perspective
Daniel Rector and Deanna Maynard, Missouri Schoolwide PBS

A Functional Approach to Anxiety and School Refusal Behaviors
Rose Iovannone, PhD, BCBA-D, University of South Florida, Tampa

Barriers to Implementation of Effective Transition Services for Adolescents with ASD
Laura Corona, Ph.D., Vanderbilt University

Effective Classroom Practices for Students with Internalizing Behavior
Daniel Rector and Deanna Maynard, Missouri Schoolwide PBS

Evidence-Based Social Communication Intervention for Children with ASD
Ya-Chih Chang, PhD, California State University, Los Angeles

Online registration will be available March 2019