

The Department of Africana Studies (518-442-4730)

Tenth Annual Research Symposium

FREE ADMITTANCE

CAMPUS CENTER 375

FREE ADMITTANCE

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2017

- 8:45                      Registration
Light Breakfast Refreshments Provided
- 9:15                      Welcome –     Dr. Oscar Williams
Associate Professor and Department Chair
- 9:20 – 12:00            Session One – Faculty Panel
- Moderator –            Dr. David Agum
                                 Lecturer
- Dr. Marcia Sutherland     “Adaptive Coping Strategies for Dealing With Life Stressors”
- Professor Timothy Taylor     “Partisan Gerrymandering and Racial Justice: The Adjunct Lecturer             Drawing of Political Lines in the Trump Era”
- Dr. Oscar Williams             “Heritage (Dangerously) Becoming History: The Associate Professor             Legacy of Confederate Symbols in American Culture”
- Closing Response –     Dr. David Agum
                                 Lecturer
- 12:00 – 1:00            Break for Lunch in Assembly Hall
Refreshments Provided
- 1:00 – 3:50            Session 2 – Graduate Student Panel
- Moderator – Gienabou Diallo
- Semaj Campbell                “Sexual Exploitation on the Plantation: Sex, Racism, Symone Campbell                and Power”
- Charlisa Goodlet                “Can’t Stop, Won’t Stop: The Case of Hip-Hop as an Agent of Political Change in the Black Lives Matter
                                     Era”
- Tim Dillinger                      “Right on Be Free: The Radical Possibility of Gospel”
- 3:50 – 4:00            Closing Remarks -            Dr. Oscar Williams
Associate Professor and Department Chair

Co-Sponsored by UAS Albany