Young Writers Workshops
July 13-17, 2020

The Capital District Writing Project’s Summer 2020 Young Writers Workshops are facilitated by experienced educators who challenge young people to grow as writers in a supportive community.

WRITING LIKE AN ARTIST
Grades 1-5
Play with different types of storytelling inspired by art, picture books, photography, and more!

EPIC RAPS OF HISTOR-ME!
Grades 6-12
History is truly the story of all of us! Tell your story by drawing on the power that recently brought Alexander Hamilton to life: rap!

CREATIVE WRITING FOR THE COLLEGE ESSAY
Grades 9-12
Engage in self-reflective writing that can serve as a basis for a powerful, personal college essay.

CREATE YOUR OWN WORLD
Grades 6-12
Using mixed media, creative writing, and your imagination, create and describe a fictionalized world.

WHAT’S YOUR STORY? WRITING MEMOIR
Grades 9-12
Collect memories, sculpt narratives, craft scenes, and bring your stories to life on a page within a vibrant community of young writers.

$200/WORKSHOP | REGISTER BY JUNE 1 | UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY-SUNY CAMPUS

web: www.albany.edu/cdwp
email: cdwpwritenow@gmail.com