E-mail: ________________________________

Student ID: _______________________________

Please submit this form to the CEHC Office at least one week before you plan to register. You should already have discussed your proposal with the faculty member who will supervise your study. The study should be at least equivalent in its demands and effort to a regular course of equal credit. It may not substitute for any required course in the curriculum. Your proposal must be approved and signed by the faculty supervisor and the INF Ph.D. Program Director before being submitted to the CEHC Office. The CEHC Office will then create a course section number and generate a permission number so that you can register for IINF 894. The supervising faculty member will evaluate the progress and results of your work.
