

The 2013 George W. Neighbor Jr. Memorial Scholarship

Ashton Lesiak was awarded the 2013 George W. Neighbor Jr. Memorial Scholarship. The Northeastern Association of Forensic Scientists selects one student per year who demonstrates excellence in a Forensic Science or related science program. In addition to a monetary award, the Ashton received free membership to the Northeastern Association of Forensic Scientists. A prestigious award, the George W. Neighbor Jr. Memorial Scholarship is an indicator of a student's excellence in the field of forensic science.
