Registration form with four columns for course selection and five rows of input lines.

I have read the course description(s) for the course(s) I want to enroll in and I have completed all prerequisites stated in the Undergraduate Bulletin.

I understand that my current registration is for nondegree study and that my enrollment in General Studies does not guarantee my admission as a degree student. In order to matriculate, I must file a formal application with the appropriate admissions office and meet admissions requirements. I verify that I have read this entire sheet and all the information on the application is true to the best of my knowledge.
