Did you know that hummingbirds usually start to arrive in our area during the first week of May? It’s a perfect time to learn some interesting facts about hummingbirds and our other delightful winged garden visitors, butterflies! Join Rensselaer County Cornell Cooperative Extension Master Gardener Pat Thorne as she describes ways to attract these winged wonders to our yards and outlines which plants they love that are zoned for our climate area.

To Register:
Brenda Seckerson
EAP Coordinator
bseckerson@albany.edu
518.442.5483

Tuesday, May 7
Noon—1:00 pm
Café Conference Room
A Wing

HTTP://WWW.ALBANY.EDU/EAP/EVENT_SIGN-UP.HTM