Join the Capital District Writing Project for a day of writing and artistic inspiration!

In the morning, CDWP Site Director Kelly Wissman will invite us to compose our own stories inspired by children’s literature. Award-winning illustrator and author Elizabeth Zunon will then engage us in a reflective sharing of her own artistic and writing processes.

In the afternoon, CDWP members will spend time together envisioning and planning for the future of the CDWP.

9am-12pm (All capital region educators are welcome!)
• Welcome and Writing into the Day: Leah Werther
• Composing with Picturebooks: Kelly Wissman
• Weaving Worlds Together: Elizabeth Zunon

12pm-3pm (CDWP members)
• Envisioning and Planning Sessions
• Lunch will be provided

CTLE credits will be available for the day.
