

UNIVERSITY
AT ALBANY
State University of New York

School of Education

Educational Policy & Leadership

EMPOWERING INNOVATIVE LEADERS

EPL UNDERGRADUATE SUMMER COURSES 2018

Course	CRN	Course	Dates	Instructor	Format
EAPS 202	2270	LEADERSHIP IN ORGANIZATIONS This course is an introduction of foundational concepts and theories essential to understanding the role of leaders in organizational settings. It emphasizes the various definitions of leadership as well as key theories exploring how individuals lead organizations, facilitate team dynamics, and handle organizational conflict.	June 25–July 20 (4W2)	Martha Asselin	Fully Online (100%)
EAPS 300	2022	SOCIAL FOUNDATIONS OF EDUCATION Inquiry into educational policies, purposes, and ideas based upon the resources and insights of the humanities and the social sciences. Prerequisite(s): junior or senior class standing.	June 25-Aug 3 (6W2)	Gina Giuliano	Fully Online (100%)
EAPS 350	2228	LEADERSHIP IN THE INTERNATIONAL ARENA This course introduces students to the emerging field of global leadership through theoretical and practice-based learning. Students will gain an understanding of the history and origins of global leadership, appreciate the role culture plays in global leadership, and examine established and emerging perspectives in complex modern contexts. Through discussions, reflections, vignettes/dialogues, case studies, individual assessments, and other applications, this course prepares students to do global work effectively in a multifaceted context with people from various cultures. Only one version may be taken for credit. Prerequisite(s): junior or senior class standing or permission of instructor.	May 29–Aug 17 (12W)	Michael Elliott	Fully Online (100%)

REGISTER NOW TO SECURE YOUR SUMMER ENROLLMENT

UUP ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEES MAY ENROLL WITH A PERMISSION NUMBER

For more info: <http://www.albany.edu/registrar/21884.php>