Courses in Educational Policy & Leadership

E Epl 202
Leadership in Organizations (3)
This course offered fully online. This course is an introduction of foundational concepts and theories essential to understanding the role of leaders in organizational settings. It emphasizes the various definitions of leadership as well as key theories exploring how individuals lead organizations, facilitate team dynamics, and handle organizational conflict.
(1812) Asselin, Martha
4 Week 2: June 21-July 16

E Epl 300
Social Foundations of Education (3)
This course offered fully online. Inquiry into educational policies, purposes, and ideas based upon the resources and insights of the humanities and the social sciences. Prerequisite(s): junior or senior class standing.
(2602) Giuliano, Gina
6 Week 4: June 28-August 6
Scheduled synchronous class meetings via Zoom:
Th 12:30p.m.-1:30p.m.

Graduate Courses

E Epl 607
Labor Relations & Collective Bargaining (3)
This course offered fully online. Introduction to the theory and practice of labor-management relations and collective bargaining in education. Includes legal and social context, history, and process of bargaining in elementary-secondary and higher education. Relation of bargaining to administration and governance, impasses, strikes, administration of labor agreements.
(2603) Julius, Daniel
6 Week 1: May 24-July 2
Scheduled synchronous class meetings via Zoom:
M 6:00p.m.-9:30p.m.

E Epl 611 (= E Phl 601)
Philosophy of Education (3)
This course offered fully online. An examination of the methods of philosophy and its application to educational issues. Topics considered include social justice, moral education and theories of learning and knowledge. These topics are examined in the context of historic and contemporary philosophical writings.
(2437) Giuliano, Gina
6 Week 2: June 21-July 30
Scheduled synchronous class meetings via Zoom:
T 12:30p.m.-1:30p.m.

E Epl 618
Family and Community Partnerships (3)
This course offered fully online. Analysis of school improvement-oriented partnerships with families, community organizations, and neighborhood associations with special emphasis on health and social service agencies, youth development organizations, and local coalitions.
(2243) Schiller, Kathryn
12 Week: May 24-August 13
Scheduled synchronous class meetings via Zoom on the following dates:
Th 6:00p.m.-8:30p.m. - 5/27, 6/10, 6/24, 7/15, 7/29 & 8/12

E Epl 757
Seminar in the Administration of the Community College (3)
This course offered fully online. Organization and management of the two-year college as a distinct sector of postsecondary education. Topics include administrative concepts and functions such as finance, governance, and management of academic programs. Major field-based project required.
(2436) Duffy, Kristine
6 Week 1: May 24-July 2
Scheduled synchronous class meetings via Zoom on the following dates:
T 6:00p.m.-7:30p.m. - 5/25, 6/8; T 6:00p.m.-8:00p.m. - 6/29

E Epl 758
Special Topics in International Education Management & Leadership: Immigration Compliance, Policy Development & Risk Management (1)
This course offered fully online. This course focuses on unique challenges facing international scholars and institutions related to U.S. immigration and labor regulations, compliance issues and related challenges. A critical incident case study approach is utilized in the course.
(2209) Cushing, Ronald
6 Week 1: May 24-July 2
Scheduled synchronous class meetings via Zoom on the following dates:
4:00p.m.-5:30p.m. - 5/26, 5/31, 6/7, 6/11 & 6/18 ; T 6:00p.m.-8:00p.m. - 6/29

E Epl 758
Special Topics in International Education Management & Leadership: International Educational Partnerships (1)
This course offered fully online. This course explores critical issues pertaining to higher education partnerships within an international context. Topics include methods for identifying and vetting international partners, cross-cultural negotiation, contract management, diplomatic protocol and more.
(2564) Di Maria, David
6 Week 2: June 21-July 30
Scheduled synchronous class meetings via Zoom on the following dates:
5:00p.m.-6:30p.m. - 6/22, 6/24, 6/29, 7/1 & 7/13

E Epl 758
Special Topics in International Education Management & Leadership: Data-Driven Decision Making in International Education (1)
This course offered fully online. This course focuses on decision making and risk in the international education environment. During the course we will examine financial as well as qualitative data that an international education leader would need for informed decision making. International education case studies will inform the type of data needed for effective decisions. In addition to financial and qualitative factors, the course will explore ethical issues related to decisions.
(2565) Ugras, Yusuf
6 Week 3: July 6-August 13
Scheduled synchronous class meetings via Zoom on the following dates:
W 7:00p.m.-8:30p.m. - 7/7, 7/14, 7/21, 7/28 & 8/4

E Epl 896
School Leadership Internship I (2-4)
This course offered fully online. Participation in a year-long internship experience leading to New York State certification in school leadership. The first course of a three-course sequence. Includes a seminar. Prerequisites: Epl 600, Epl 601, Epl 614, and one Epl social science elective.
(2237) Spring, Kathie
12 Week: May 24-August 13
Scheduled synchronous class meetings via Zoom on the following dates:
W 4:00p.m.-6:00p.m. - 5/26, 6/16, 7/14 & 8/11