U Uni 110
Writing and Critical Inquiry (3)
This course offered online through the Blackboard Learning System. Introduction to college-level critical inquiry with a focus on the practice of writing. Based on principles of rhetorical theory, the course emphasizes intensive practice in academic writing as well as writing in other contexts. Students complete various projects in order to deepen their understanding of writing as a vehicle for inquiry and enhance their ability to produce clear and effective prose for different audiences and purposes and in different media. Only one of T UNI 110, U UNI 110, or A ENG 110 may be taken for credit. Must be completed with a grade of S or C or better to meet the Writing and Critical Inquiry requirement. Contact the department at knava@albany.edu for permission of instructor. Freshman are not permitted to register for this online class. Priority will be given to seniors & juniors who need this class to graduate.

Applied Learning Internship (1)
This course offered online through the Blackboard Learning System. Monitored and evaluated field experience in an environment related to the student's field of study and/or career interests. The course includes academic assignments that focus on the creation of learning objectives, reflection, and evaluation. All course assignments may be submitted online, allowing students to participate in internships anywhere in the world. Students are required to complete a minimum of 50 on-site internship hours over the duration of the term in which they are registered. Academic work is in addition to hours worked as part of internship. Course enrollment is limited to situations approved by the Institute for Applied Learning and/or the course instructor. Students will be required to participate in an online internship orientation prior to registering for the course. Note: equivalent credit for prior experience is not available due to the academic component of the internship course. Students may not earn more than 6 credit hours for U UNI 288 and U UNI 289 combined. Prerequisite(s): 2.0 GPA, at least sophomore standing, and permission of instructor. S/U graded. Email appliedlearning@albany.edu for more information.
