Learn English for tourism through classroom exercises, experiential learning, task-based projects, and hands-on training. Students will take trips to the New York State Capitol Building and Executive Mansion, NY State Museum, and Discover Albany Visitor’s Center.

Classes will involve vocabulary, reading, discussion, listening, and practice with tourism situations and appropriate English. Real-life scenario exercises may cover hotels and hospitality, tours and historic sites, airports and travel, and more.

New York State has 5 of the top tourist attractions in the United States: State of Liberty, Times Square, Niagara Falls, Empire State Building and Central Park. Before, after, or during the program, you can explore these amazing destinations, and more!

The Intensive English Language Program (IELP) at UAlbany has been offering specially designed intensive English instruction since 1978 to more than 12,000 international students from more than 112 countries. Faculty and staff are committed to helping students meet their English language goals, experience American culture and campus life, and prepare for academic study. The IELP specializes in English for Specific Purposes.

For more information, please contact Mark Rentz, Associate Vice Provost for International Education, University at Albany, SUNY, at mrentz@albany.edu.