

Northeastern Nahuatl Group Annual Meeting
May 6-8, 2021
Via zoom
(login information available shortly)
Contact nahuatlconference@gmail.com for further details

Honoring in huei temachtiani, R. Joe Campbell

(All times are Eastern Daylight Time)

Thursday, May 6, 2021

11:00 – 13:00 Codex Xolotl Project – Progress Reports:

Jerry Offner, Progress Report on the Codex Xolotl

Rudolf Cesaretti, “Ground-Truthing” the Codex Xolotl: Interdisciplinary Insights from Systematic Comparison of X.010-X.050 with the Archaeology of Middle Postclassic Central Mexico

Miguel Ángel Ruz Barrio, Un análisis de la representación geográfica del Códice Xolotl

Hayley Woodward, The Shifting Glyphic Landscapes of the Codex Xolotl

David Wright-Carr, The Codex Xolotl: A Landscape Full of Meaning

Patrick Lesbre, Trece días de recorrido de Nezahualcoyotl perseguido (to be presented in Spanish)

13:00 BREAK

13:30 Document Session: Jerome Offner & Hayley Woodward, Intensive Study of One Page of the Codex Xolotl

14:30 Andrew Laird, Is the Cruz-Badiano ‘Aztec herbal’ really a Latin translation of a Nahuatl text?

15:00 Mackenzie Cooley, Galenic and Nahua Medicine in the Codex Badianus

15:30 James Maffie, The Tonalamatl as Talking Book: Conversations with Other-Than-Human Persons in the Key of Life

16:00 Document Session: Louise M. Burkhart, Passion Play Puzzlers

17:00 Close for the Day

Friday, May 7, 2021

11:00 Katarzyna Szoblik, The Huastec style songs of the manuscript of Cantares mexicanos – a comparative analysis of two Nahuatl texts described as cuextecayotl.

11:30 Obed Lira, Authorship in the Cantares Mexicanos: A Stylometric Approach

12:00 Heungtae Yang, The Song for the Sun and Maize: An interpretation for Song of Atamalqualiztli in Florentine Codex II

12:30 Julia Madajczak, To bathe or not to bathe? The washing of sacrificial victims and other ritual baths among the pre-Christian Nahua

13:00 BREAK

13:15 Molly H. Bassett, The Eagle on the Nopal as a “Bundle”

13:45 Katarzyna Mikulska, Onomastic signs within images of the gods in the divinatory codices of the so-called “Borgia Group”

14:15 Agnieszka Brylak, Teccuecuechtli, or the buffoonery at the highest levels of the Aztec rulership

14:45 BREAK

15:00 Ezekiel Stear, Nahua Horizons: Writing, Rhetoric, and Future Paths in Colonial Mexico

15:30 Gabriela Citlahua Zepahua, Xiwimeh: Del tlalocan al tlaltikpaktli, moverse desde la palabra

16:00 Document Session: Agnieszka Brylak, Titulos de tierras pertenecientes al Pueblo de Santa Isabel Sola...” from the Jagiellonian Library in Cracow (Ms. Amer. 4)

17:00 Close for the Day

Saturday, May 8, 2021

11:00 Document Session: Gordon Whittaker – Nahuatl glyph workshop

12:00 Javier Eduardo Ramírez López, El Códice Cardona: un corpus inusual de “relaciones geográficas” del Valle de México fechadas en el siglo XVI

12:30 Katarzyna Granicka, Marital practices of the Nahuas and imposed socio-cultural change in the sixteenth-century Mexico

13:00 BREAK

Contemporary Nahuatl

13:15 Magnus Pharao Hansen, Temakixtikayotl – A liberation liturgy in Hueyapan Nahuatl from the 1970s

13:45 Justyna Olko, Katarzyna Lubiewska, Joanna Maryniak and Gregory Haimovich. Language cure. How speaking Nahuatl at home relates to the well-being of community members

14:15 Szymon Gruda, Gregory Haimovich, John Sullivan, Lexical Productivity And Creativity In Modern Nahuatl: A Multidialectal View

14:45 Veronica Pacheco, Sonic Knowledge and the Sacred Landscape in Chicontepepec, Veracruz, Mexico

15:15 Justyna Olko and Joanna Maryniak, Impact of the Pandemic on the Indigenous People of Mexico

15 :45 Break

16 :00 Document Session: Kelly McDonough, Ritual musician from the Huasteca

17:00 Close of the Conference

Contact nahuatlconference@gmail.com for further details