

“Human Rights and Transitional Justice in El Mozote Massacre”

Dr. Leigh Binford

Friday, April 11th at 4 pm in HU 345

The El Mozote massacre in El Salvador involved the murder over three days in December 1981 of at least 1061 people (still counting) by the US-trained Atlacatl Battalion. Thirty-one years after the massacre, the case was heard before the Interamerican Court of Human Rights.

Institute for Mesoamerican Studies
www.albany.edu/ims

