

Spellman Achievement Awards

The Spellman Awards program was created 33 years ago as a way to recognize and acknowledge the academic achievements of our students of African, Asian, Latino and Native American heritage.

The program's purpose was later expanded to include recognition of outstanding student leadership and community service. In 1991, both the program and the awards presented were named in honor and memory of one of the University's most highly regarded colleagues, the late Dr. Seth Spellman, Jr.

Spellman Top Academic Achievement Award

To receive a Spellman Award for academic achievement, scholars must be currently enrolled full-time undergraduates with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or above as of the end of the Fall 2018 semester. Upperclassmen must have been matriculated at the University for a minimum of two consecutive semesters. Top Academic Achievement Award honorees are the highest-ranking male and female recipients of African, Asian/Pacific Islander, Latino and Native American heritage in their class. Our top honorees have an average GPA of 3.97 and many of them have perfect 4.0 GPA's!
