P.F. Chang’s (restaurant)
Cheesecake Factory (restaurant)
Barnes and Noble (books, music and DVDs)
L.L. Bean (clothing and sporting goods)
Macy’s (clothing and household items)
Regal Cinema (movie theater)

Northway Shopping Center (across the street from Colonie Center):
Target – household items, clothing & electronics
Marshalls – clothing, accessories, shoes and housewears
Staples – office supplies and electronics

CDTA bus # 190 goes to Colonie Center, Northway Shopping Center, and Wolf Rd

SHOPPING DURING COVID-19

- Some stores have special shopping hours for seniors or high-risk shoppers (e.g. Price Chopper/Market 32 6-7am, Wholefoods 7-8am, Trader Joe's 8-9am). Please respect these hours.
- Many stores have also changed hours, so what you see on the website might not be correct. Call them if you are going particularly early or late in the day.
- Stores are expecting you to wear a mask.
- Prepare a shopping list first and shopping with purpose to minimize the time you spend in a store.
- Many stores have arrows or markings on the floor to show which way you should walk. This is to help minimize passing traffic so please follow the directions.
- Stores may also have specific entrance and exit doors.
- Keep social distancing (at least 6 feet) between you, other shoppers, and store employees.
- Most stores will provide wipe and sanitizer so that you can wipe down the shopping cart handle or basket.
- Limit your touching. Only handle the items you are sure you will buy.
- Store expect that you will bring your own bags. Many stores charge you if they give you a bag. Remember to keep your shopping bags and clean them.
- Wash your hands first when you return home. Wash your fruits and vegetable well. Wipe off packaging and allow it to air dry.
- Most stores allow you to order items online and then pick-up your bags at the curb or front of the store. Check their websites
- If you are ordering items online and having them delivered, be sure that your address is formatted US style.
