

International Peer Mentor

Help new international students connect to the UAlbany campus, US culture, and one another. With this semester-long volunteer program you will gain experience advising and leading other students. You will get International Student Peer Mentor training so that you can work with small groups of new student, teaching them about resources at Albany and helping them make connections to campus. You will develop new skills while helping another international student!

Questions??? Contact ISSS@albany.edu

Apply by November 29

<https://goo.gl/forms/DJyiIPymBJqSEpW93>

Want to help
new international freshman?

Why Become a Peer Mentor?

Experience for your resume
Develop personal skills
It's fun!