

James Acker, Ph.D., Criminal Justice, University at Albany; J.D., Duke University - Law; Capital Punishment; Law and Social Science; Constitutional Criminal Procedure; Substantive Criminal Law; Legal Rights of Children

Frankie Bailey, Ph.D., Criminal Justice, University at Albany - Crime History; Popular Culture/Mass Media; Justice and Multiculturalism

Shawn Bushway, Ph.D., Public Policy, Carnegie Mellon University - Economics of Crime; The Process of Desistance; The Impact of a Criminal History on Subsequent Outcomes; The Distribution of Discretion in the Criminal Justice Sentencing Process

Jamie Fader, Ph.D., Sociology, University of Pennsylvania - Corrections; Juvenile Justice; Punishment and Social Inequality; Race, Class and Crime; Transitions to Adulthood; Qualitative Research Methods

Megan Kurlychek, Ph.D., Crime, Law and Justice, The Pennsylvania State University - Juvenile Delinquency and Justice; Offender Rehabilitation and Reentry; Courts and Sentencing; Statistics and Methods

Alan Lizotte, Ph.D., Sociology, University of Illinois - Statistics and Quantitative Research Methods; Developmental Study of Antisocial Behavior over the Life Course; Patterns of Firearms Ownership and Use

Colin Loftin, Ph.D., Sociology, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill - Criminal Violence; Methodology and Statistics; Structural Factors and Crime

David McDowall, Ph.D., Sociology, Northwestern University - Statistical Methodology; Violence; Criminology

Cynthia Najdowski, Ph.D., Social Psychology, University of Illinois at Chicago - False Confessions and Wrongful Convictions; Racial Disparities in the Criminal Justice System; Perceptions of Juvenile Offenders; Abuse and Trauma Victims' Coping and Recovery

Graeme Newman, Ph.D., Sociology, University of Pennsylvania - Comparative Criminology; Social Theory; Popular Culture; Punishment and Sentencing; Situational Crime Prevention; Problem Oriented Policing; Information Technology in Criminal Justice; Terrorism

Dana Peterson, Ph.D., Criminal Justice, University of Nebraska at Omaha - Youth Gangs and Gang Prevention/Intervention; Juvenile Delinquency and Treatment; Sex and Gender Issues in Gangs and Delinquency; Program Evaluation

Justin Pickett, Ph.D., Criminology, Florida State University - Public Opinion on Crime and Criminal Justice; Social Threat and Social Control; Juvenile Justice and Delinquency; Sociology of Punishment; Survey Research Methods

Greg Pogarsky, Ph.D., Public Policy, Carnegie Mellon University; J.D., University of Pittsburgh School of Law - Criminology; Deterrence; Offender Decision-Making; Quantitative Research Methods; Longitudinal Data Analysis

Allison Redlich, Ph.D., Developmental Psychology, University of California, Davis - Police & Military Interrogation and False Confessions; Decision-Making in Plea Arrangements; Alford Pleas; Mental Health Courts and Other Mandated Treatment for Persons with Mental Illness

Heather Washington, Ph.D., Sociology, The Ohio State University - Incarceration and Family Wellbeing; Juvenile Delinquency and Children's Behavioral Outcomes; Neighborhood Context and Individuals' Involvement in Crime

Alissa Pollitz Worden, Ph.D., Political Science, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill - Criminal Court Behavior and Policy; Criminal Justice Theory; Public Opinion and Criminal Justice; Family Violence

Robert Worden, Ph.D., Political Science, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill - Criminal Justice Policy and Administration; Policing; Drug Control Policy