Diversity TALKS:
A film and speaker series on language, language learning, and social justice

12 SEPTEMBER
"No child left monolingual: Why and how to become a more linguistically inclusive nation"
Dr. Kim Potowski (University of Illinois, Chicago)
1 p.m. Campus Center Multipurpose Room

4 OCTOBER
Le Choix de Théo/Theo’s Choice
A documentary about the preservation of French in Louisiana
Screening and discussion with filmmaker Dr. Thomas Cauvin (Colorado St. Univ.)
7 p.m. Lecture Center 25

18 OCTOBER
"Promoting linguistic awareness through campus and community engagement"
Dr. Christine Mallinson (Univ. of Maryland, Baltimore County)
3 p.m. Campus Center Multipurpose Room

Co-sponsored by the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures and the Office of Diversity and Inclusion (Fall 2018)

Languages, Literatures and Cultures: (518) 442-4100
www.albany.edu/llc www.facebook.com/uallc