

Michael A. Lampert

Mr. Michael A. Lampert '73 is Senior Vice President and General Counsel of BGC Securities. He formerly was Vice Chairman of the Litigation Department at the law firm of Saul Ewing, where he served on its Intellectual Property Practice and the Financial Services Group. Previous to his position at Saul Ewing he was a partner at McManimon and Scotland, Newark, NJ, an associate and then partner at St. John, Oberdorf, Williams, Newark, NJ and an associate at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison in New York City.

Mr. Lampert served on the editorial board of The New Jersey Lawyer. He has been a panelist on several programs of the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education. He served as faculty for the ALI-ABA program on Intellectual Property Licensing Today. He frequently speaks at the Association of Corporate Counsel – America functions. He was an adjunct lecturer at Benjamin N. Cardozo Law School from 1978-1980.

Mr. Lampert was a finalist in the Ames Moot Court competition. He is the author of several publications, including "The Internet and Personal Jurisdiction," 198 N.J. Lawyer 47 (1991); chapter 4 of "Removal," in "N.J. Federal Practice and Procedure," N.J.L.J. Press, 2000; chapter 29A in "Special Issues in Settlements Under New Jersey Law," in "Settlement Agreements in Commercial Disputes" Aspen Law Business, 2002.

Currently, Mr. Lampert serves on the Rockefeller College Advisory Board. He is a member of the Board's Development Committee. Mr. Michael Lampert served as a member of the board of directors and then president of the Alumni Association for the University at Albany from 1973-1985.

Mr. Lampert received a B.A. (magna cum laude) in Political Science from the University at Albany in 1973, and a law degree from Harvard University Law School in 1976. While at the University at Albany, he was President of the Student Association from 1971-1973; a member of the University Senate; and Who's Who. He was a member of the honorary, MYSKANIA. Mr. Lampert received the Alumni Association's Excellence in Service Award.