SUNY CAMPUSES HOST CHILDREN

SUNY campuses host programs for children and provide space to third parties for events involving children.

Child programs may include:

- Summer camps
- Academic programs
- Athletic programs
- Community Outreach activities
- Volunteer Programs
- Student Instruction Programs
Background on SUNY’s Policies and Actions

• The 2012 report of special investigative counsel concerning child sexual abuse at Penn State University (the “Freeh Report”) reviewed egregious instances of long term, undetected child sexual abuse.

• The Freeh Report made recommendations and cited best practices for unaccompanied children at university facilities, housing and university programs.

• Higher education institutions across the country, including SUNY, have enacted policies and best practices to protect children.
SUNY’s Commitment to Child Protection

- SUNY has two System-wide policies to protect children at SUNY facilities and in SUNY programs.
- Both policies were adopted by the SUNY Board of Trustees upon the Chancellor’s recommendation and both policies affirm SUNY’s commitment to making the protection of children a System-wide priority.

Policy on Mandatory Prevention and Reporting of Child Sexual Abuse
Adopted by Board on Dec. 17, 2012

Mandates reporting of child sexual abuse for all University activities on and off University property.

Child Protection Policy
Adopted by Board on June 17, 2014

Sets policy for local procedures to protect children on campus.
SUNY’s Policies on Protection of Minors: How Are the Two Policies Different

Mandatory Prevention and Reporting of Child Sexual Abuse Policy

- Aim: DETECTION and REPORTING of CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE
- Implementation: Leaves most implementation decisions to the campus
- Scope: Applies in ALL circumstances where children are present, on or off University property if University business or University sponsored events are involved.
- Reporting: Requires reporting of sexual abuse by all members of University community.

Child Protection Policy

- Aim: PREVENTION, DETECTION, and REPORTING of CHILD SEXUAL and PHYSICAL ABUSE
- Specific Directives: SPECIFIC directives and action items for all campuses, SYSAdmin and University Affiliates
- Scope: Applies when University, University Affiliates or third parties is responsible for custody, control, and supervision of children.
- Reporting: Requires reporting of sexual and physical abuse.
Defining and Recognizing Child Abuse

Child Protection Policies  Training
Defining and Recognizing Child Abuse

Before we discuss SUNY’s policies in detail, let’s first take a step back to define child sexual abuse and child physical abuse and what it means within the context of SUNY’s policies.
Physical Abuse: Physical contact with a child by a covered person which is intended to cause, or causes, pain or physical injury, including punching, beating, shaking, throwing, kicking, biting and burning, or directing a child, outside the norm of the supervised activity, to perform physical activity which is intended to cause physical injury.
Defining and Recognizing Child Abuse

Indicators of Child Physical Abuse

• Frequent injuries of any kind (bruises, cuts, burns), especially if the child is unable to provide an adequate explanation of the cause.
  ➢ Injuries may appear in distinctive patterns such as grab marks, human bite marks, cigarette burns, or impressions of other instruments.
  ➢ Human bites compress flesh causing bruises; animal bites normally tear the flesh.

• Injuries to both sides of the head or body.
  ➢ Accidental injuries typically only affect one side of the body.

SUNY System-wide Policy on Mandatory Reporting and Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse

[the “Mandatory Reporting Policy”]

Effective Dec. 2012

Child Protection Policies Training
Mandatory Reporting Policy

Mandates Reporting to University Police

Employees + Students + Volunteers have an AFFIRMATIVE DUTY to report Child Sexual abuse to University Police when abuse occurs

On university property OR Off university property during official university business or during university-sponsored events
Mandatory Reporting Policy

• Policy creates mandated reporting requirement for SUNY.

ALL SUNY STAFF, STUDENTS & VOLUNTEERS have an affirmative duty to report incidents ONLY related to activities on University property or University-sponsored events off campus.
Reporting Physical or Sexual Abuse

When to Report

REASONABLE CAUSE TO SUSPECT = REPORT
Reasonable Cause to Suspect

“Reasonable cause to suspect” means that based on your rational observations and experience, you have a suspicion that the child is being physically or sexually abused.

Adapted from: NYS Office of Children & Family Services Summary Guide for Mandated Reporters
Reporting Physical or Sexual Abuse

Reasonable Cause to Suspect

• “Reasonable cause to suspect” means you have a logical basis to suspect.
• You do not need proof or certainty.
• “Reasonable cause” can be doubt or distrust of a child’s explanation for injuries.

Reporting Physical or Sexual Abuse

Reasonable Cause to Suspect

Report each instance of physical or sexual abuse that you have reasonable cause to suspect.
Mandatory Reporting Policy

Example: SUNY employee at the grocery store learns of child sexual abuse unrelated to SUNY.

→ Not obligated to report under SUNY policy.

Example: SUNY employee at the grocery store learns of child sexual abuse at SUNY program.

→ Affirmative duty to report under SUNY policy.

Example: SUNY employee participating in a campus-sponsored volunteer event off-campus learns of child sexual abuse during the event.

→ Affirmative duty to report under SUNY policy.
Mandatory Reporting Policy

Training

RELEVANT employees must be trained recognizing child sexual abuse; on their obligation to report such abuse, and on proper reporting protocols.

Third Parties

Vendors and others using University facilities for activities involving children must have procedures in place to screen their employees and to train their employees to recognize and report child sexual abuse.
SUNY Child Protection Policy

Adopted June 2014
Child Protection Policy

POLICY:
The State University of New York is committed to protecting the safety and well-being of children who participate in University-related programs and activities, whether on or off campus, or utilize campus facilities for activities including, but not limited to, sports camps, academic and personal enrichment programs and research studies.

[“Policy” Statement is Section B of the policy.]
Child Protection Policy

Summary: Individuals must conduct themselves appropriately with children who participate in University-related programs and report instances or suspicion of physical or sexual abuse of children

[“Summary” Statement is Section A of the policy.]
Child Protection Policy
