The Division for Research is pleased to share guidance and information from federal sponsors and agencies in the wake of the COVID-19 outbreak.

COVID-19 Federal Guidance and Information Web Resource

(Or visit this site by clicking on the following URL: www.albany.edu/research-guidance/Federal-agencies.html)

This resource provides invaluable information from a number of federal agencies in response to the COVID-19 pandemic including: sponsor alerts and advisories, sponsored programs guidance, flexibilities for funded investigators, new funding opportunities, extensions on existing grant programs, FAQs available agency support, as well as an array of other useful information.
To Learn About Federal Guidance:  Click Here
To Find Federal Funding Opportunities:  Click Here
(A part of the UAlbany COVID-19 Research Site)

-----------------------------------------------

BACKGROUND: The Division for Research recently launched the COVID-19 Research Website to provide research guidance and information for our research community related to the novel coronavirus, COVID-19.

We have gathered a collection of links regarding COVID-19 guidance from major federal agencies and sponsors including the:

- National Science Foundation
- National Institutes of Health
- Health and Human Services (CDC, HRSA, SAMSHA)
- Department of Defense (Air Force, DARPA, Navy, Army)
- Department of Energy
- National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA)
- Department of Justice

These agencies are providing important guidance regarding federally sponsored programs, including current awards and new and existing funding opportunities.

We hope this web resource will provide faculty and researchers an opportunity to learn more about the guidance and information issued by federal sponsors, and in so doing, benefit you in advancing your research program during this challenging time.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION & QUESTIONS: If you should have any questions or would like to add additional information from a federal sponsor, please feel free to reach out to research@albany.edu or call (518) 956-8010.
In the meantime, we will continue to keep you apprised of further updates that might impact your research and scholarly pursuits in the days and weeks ahead.