

Michelle Renee Henault

1400 Washington Avenue, Albany, NY 12222
mhenault@albany.edu

Education

University at Albany

Candidate for PhD as of May 2019

Albany, New York

Doctor of Philosophy in History – Early Modern and Modern Europe

Fall 2017 – Present

Dissertation Title: The Reproductive Life Cycle of Eighteenth-Century Britons

Advisor: Dr. Maeve Kane

Dissertation Committee: Dr. Maeve Kane, Dr. Federica Francesconi, Dr. Cristina Florea

Worcester State University

Worcester, Massachusetts

Masters of Arts in History – Modern Europe

Fall 2015 – Spring 2017

Summa Cum Laude, Medallion Winner

Degree and Thesis Advisor: Dr. Erika Briesacher

Worcester State University

Worcester, Massachusetts

Bachelor of Arts in History – Modern Europe

Fall 2011 – Spring 2015

Minor in Psychology

Cum Laude

University of Roehampton

London, England

Study Abroad Semester

Spring 2014

Academic Employment

Graduate Teaching Assistant

Fall 2017 – Present

Department of History, University at Albany – Albany, New York

Teaching and Administrative Assistant

Fall 2015 – Spring 2017

Department of History, Worcester State University – Worcester, Massachusetts

Teaching Experience

Teaching Assistant – History 131: History of European Civilizations II

Spring 2020

University at Albany, Supervised by: Dr. Nadieszda Kizenko

Teaching Assistant – History 130: History of European Civilizations I

Fall 2019

University at Albany, Supervised by: Dr. Randolph B. Ford

Teaching Assistant – History 101: American Political and Social History II

Spring 2019

University at Albany, Supervised by: Dr. Laura Wittern-Keller

Teaching Assistant – History 100: American Political and Social History I

Fall 2018

Teaching Assistant – History 100: American Political and Social History I Spring 2018
University at Albany, Supervised by: Dr. Laura Wittern-Keller

Other Positions

Publications

Fellowships, Grants, and Awards

Conferences

New England Historical Association 50th Anniversary Conference Spring 2015
Presentation: “Breaching the Public Sphere: Women, Enlightenment Salons, and Habermas.”

University of Massachusetts, Amherst 21st Annual Undergraduate Research Conference
Presentation: “Breaching the Public Sphere: Women, Enlightenment Salons, and Habermas.”
Spring 2015

Professional and Institutional Service

Volunteer, Researching New York Conference 2019

Speaker, Masters and PhD Comps Workshop October 2019
Hosted by the History Graduate Student Organization – University at Albany

Graduate Faculty Representative May 2019-Present
History Student Graduate Organization – University at Albany

Volunteer, Researching New York Conference 2018

Graduate Faculty Representative May 2018-Dec 2018
History Graduate Student Organization – University at Albany

Secretary Spring 2018
History Graduate Student Organization – University at Albany

Volunteer, Researching New York Conference 2017

Guest Lectures and Presentations

Guest Lecture invited by Dr. Nadieszda Kizenko, University at Albany Spring 2020
“Gender and Medicine in Eighteenth-Century Europe”

Guest Lecture invited by Dr. Randolph B. Ford, University at Albany Fall 2019
“Early Modern Medicine in Europe,” History of European Civilizations I

Guest Presentation invited by Dr. Carl Bon Tempo, University at Albany Fall 2019
“How to be a Better Teaching Assistant,” Practicum in College Teaching

Guest Lecture invited by Dr. Maeve Kane, University at Albany Fall 2018
“The Salem Witch Trials: Salem, Massachusetts and Puritan Society, 1692-1693,”
American Political and Social History I

Guest Lecture invited by Dr. John Palella, Worcester State University Fall 2016
“Women and Men in the Making of the Atlantic World,” World Civilizations II

Guest Lecture invited by Dr. Erika Briesacher, Worcester State University Fall 2016
“The European Witch Craze,” Modern Germany I

Professional Affiliations

American Historical Association

American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies