Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP 2014 – 2017
Partner, Washington, D.C.
Co-Leader of Cybersecurity, Privacy, and Data Protection Practice

- Focused primarily on cybersecurity, privacy and data protection matters for corporate and association clients; also handled selected antitrust, telecom regulation, technology, regulatory, corporate and policy matters.
- Assisted clients in major transactions, public-private partnerships, regulatory rulemakings, and other matters involving cybersecurity and privacy; counselled on cybersecurity, privacy and data protection, including corporate governance, public policy and regulation, vendor agreements and supply chain, risk management and security controls, risk assessments, incident response planning, breach, privacy policies and procedures, and related issues. Conducted cybersecurity and privacy due diligence for acquisitions and financings in a broad range of industries, from healthcare to manufacturing, and technology to national security, and assisted with drafting of related reps, warranties, or risk factors, and counseled on post-acquisition improvements; wrote, spoke and advised on U.S. and global cybersecurity and privacy developments; also advised on antitrust issues; voter protection pro bono work.

- Earned recognition from Legal 500 US etc. individually and as a cyber practice

Federal Communications Commission (FCC)

2012 – 2014

Chief, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau (PSHSB) (2012 – 2013)

Deputy Chief, International Bureau (IB) (2013-2014)

Top Secret/SCI security clearances

- As Chief of PSHSB, directed 115-person staff devoted to advancing accessible, reliable, resilient and secure state-of-the-art emergency and public safety communications, through joint public and private cooperation with industry, rulemakings, and interagency policymaking with an array of independent and executive branch agencies; testified before Congress and spoke to and worked with public safety organizations, trade groups, governmental organizations at all levels, and public and international audiences; oversaw 24/7 FCC Operations Center and other operational and licensing facilities and programs; received regular intelligence briefings; initiated and led effort that reduced PSHSB's pending applications backlog by almost two-thirds; reported to FCC Chairman.
- Helped lead and shape the FCC's efforts to improve the nation's cybersecurity, including frequent representation of the FCC in interagency policymaking on a range of domestic and international issues, including to implement the President's Executive Order on Improving Critical Infrastructure Cybersecurity (and development of the related NIST Cybersecurity Framework) and the Presidential Policy Directive on Critical Infrastructure and Security and Reliability; oversaw selection of cybersecurity and other topics for prominent FCC advisory committee working in public-private partnership (the "CSRIC"), which ultimately led to a landmark report providing guidance to the communications sector on NIST Cybersecurity Framework implementation.
- Helped advance Next Generation 911 networks and public availability of text-to-911 capabilities through proposals and orders; oversaw preparation and release of high-profile investigatory report on the causes of 911 service outages during the June 2012 derecho and initiatives to prevent recurrence (won award from Fairfax County, VA for post-derecho efforts).

- Managed FCC's emergency response to commercial communications network problems, including work with commercial and multiple levels of government stakeholders during and after Superstorm Sandy, Hurricane Isaac and other disasters, and helped lead efforts to enhance resiliency of commercial networks used by the public; served as FCC's member of the Executive Committee (consisting of seven agencies) created by the President's Executive Order on National Security and Emergency Preparedness Communications; worked with federal partners and industry to deploy and improve Wireless Emergency Alerts and the Emergency Alert System; oversaw FCC's work assisting FirstNet deployment; oversaw FCC's continuity of operations plans and exercises, including cybersecurity, and member of FCC team on transition to IP networks.
- As Deputy Chief of IB, helped address issues and lead reforms related to Executive Branch input to FCC on national security (including cybersecurity), law enforcement, foreign policy and trade concerns regarding applications and proposed transactions involving foreign investment; helped lead informal team on international disaster response.

Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP (LeBoeuf Lamb prior to 2007 merger)

2005 – 2012

Partner

Global Co-Chair of Antitrust Practice Group (2005 – 2011)

Coordinator of the Washington, D.C., Antitrust Practice Group (2011 – 2012)

- In addition to antitrust and related intellectual property issues, worked on constitutional, commercial, insurance, international trade and pro bono voter protection matters for corporate, individual, government and association clients.
- Litigated private class and individual lawsuits for defendants and plaintiffs; assisted with state, federal and international investigations; appeared before sectoral regulatory agencies and the DOJ and FTC and worked with Congress on competition-related matters; counseled clients on a range of U.S., state and global conduct, transactional, regulatory, policy and compliance matters.
- Appointed twice by federal courts and the FCC, as a condition of government merger approvals, to serve as Management Trustee for rural cellular businesses and spectrum in a combined total of 20 markets, including 26 owned retail stores. Divestiture of one of the merging businesses was required in markets where the mergers would otherwise lead to the parties owning the only two major competitive networks built in the area. After closing, the Management Trustee was responsible for running one of the businesses in those markets for about six months, including network, sales, marketing, customer service, outage restoration, etc., to preserve competition until divestiture was accomplished. Through innovative strategies, achieved record consumer sales in these markets.

David Turetsky LLC
Law, Government Affairs, and Business Counselor

2001 – 2005

- Represented technology and telecommunications clients involved in e-commerce, wireless, wireline and other areas, on a range of legal, policy, or business issues. Worked on competition and merger issues for major globally known media and communications clients; congressional telecom and competition issues for a major coalition of service providers; interconnection and competition issues for CLECs and other providers; competition, consumer protection and other policy issues for large e-commerce companies; matters involving network reliability, redundancy and disasters for telecom service providers; and fundraising and strategic advice for tech start-ups. Registered as lobbyist in connection with some of these representations.

Teligent, Inc.
Senior Vice President for Law and Regulatory Assistant Secretary, Vice President for Law and Regulatory

1997 – 2000

- As part of Teligent's original senior management team, helped to transform a 60-employee startup into a more than 3000-employee publicly traded company that provided nationwide voice and broadband services over fixed wireless and fiber local networks, and commenced service abroad. Participated in regular senior team meetings to help run the business. Helped lead IPO.
- Supervised and/or helped advise company board or management in a broad range of legal areas, including litigation, intellectual property, regulation and policy, human resources, commercial transactions, securities, acquisitions, real estate, and worked with international joint venture partners. Managed proactive and service-oriented legal department.
- Initiated two successful major litigations concerning use of public rights-of-way and intellectual property and established important precedents; strategically managed commercial and employment disputes, avoiding significant exposure.
- Served as Teligent's lead strategist, advocate, and spokesperson on most regulatory and public policy issues to federal and state regulatory and competition agencies, legislative committees, press, media, securities analysts, trade associations and other public policy organizations. Served on Board of Directors of two trade associations.

U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), Antitrust Division

1993 – 1997

Deputy Assistant Attorney General for Civil and Regulatory (1995 – 1997)

Senior Counsel to the Assistant Attorney General (1993 – 1995)

Top Secret/SCI security clearances

- As regulatory deputy and before that as senior counsel, helped oversee numerous important civil and merger antitrust enforcement matters, investigations and consent decrees; and participated in and helped shape or implement major competition policy or enforcement initiatives, including major White House-led interagency initiatives with significant congressional, state and international impact, particularly in the area of communications competition.
- Helped bring cases challenging aspects of major mergers in the television, radio, cable, and electric industries, and cases challenging non-merger anti-competitive conduct in the radio, electric and other industries; led negotiations for the phase-out of the historic 1956 IBM Consent Decree (as Acting Ass't Attorney General).
- Helped lead DOJ's participation for several years in Vice President Gore's high-priority interagency working group that developed, coordinated and worked with Congress and the public on the Administration's telecommunications and national information infrastructure policy, and worked to shape and enact the Telecommunications Act of 1996.
- Served as DOJ representative on interagency team that reviewed negotiations and proposals to enter into WTO Telecom Services Agreement.
- Spearheaded legislative effort with bipartisan support to pass the International Antitrust Enforcement Assistance Act of 1994, to improve DOJ and FTC's antitrust enforcement by facilitating discovery of documents and information located abroad; and then led discussions of the new law with interested antitrust enforcers, including Australia, which entered into the first agreement under it.
- Represented U.S. Government and DOJ on competition policy as a member of U.S. delegations to international meetings on five continents, often focusing as well on telecommunications, satellite, e-commerce, and related industries, including the G-7 Conference on the Information Society in Brussels, a subsequent meeting in South Africa of the G-7 with developing countries, ISAD, INTELSAT, and bilateral meetings with the EU, UK, Italy and Australia.
- Represented U.S. Government in discussions regarding antitrust doctrines with international antitrust enforcers, including at OECD and APEC meetings.

LeBoeuf, Lamb, Leiby, & MacRae
Partner (1991 – 1993)
Associate (1982 – 1990)
New York, NY

1982 – 1993

- As an associate and then a partner, assisted U.S. and international clients with counseling or in litigation as plaintiffs and defendants, in connection with commercial, civil, and sometimes criminal matters involving antitrust, banking, securities, public utilities, insurance, constitutional, and commercial law.

Proceedings (selected; while employed at FCC only)

Derecho Report, Impact of the June 2012 Derecho on Communications Network and Services Report and Recommendations (January 2013) - Led investigation of widespread 911 outages in the Midwest and Mid-Atlantic resulting from the June 2012 “derecho” storm and submitted recommendations to increase 911 system reliability.

911 Reliability Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, To Improve the Reliability of 911 Services (March 2013) - Supervised rulemaking proceeding that proposed FCC requirements to improve reliability of critical 911 facilities during disasters, based on Derecho Report recommendations, leading to adoption of new rules (December 2013).

Superstorm Sandy Field Hearings (February 2013) - Helped organize FCC field hearings in New York and New Jersey to address impact of Sandy on communications infrastructure; moderated two of the hearing panels.

Transparency, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, Improving the Resiliency of Mobile Wireless Communications Networks, Reliability and Continuity of Communications Networks, including Broadband Technologies (September 2013) - Initiated rulemaking proceeding proposing mechanism for disclosure to consumers of wireless carrier performance in major disasters to inform consumer choice and serve as a competitive incentive to more carrier investment in network resiliency.

Communications Security, Reliability and Interoperability Council (CSRIC) - Supervised re-chartering, member selection, and working group assignments for the fourth iteration of CSRIC, a federal advisory committee to the FCC; this led to publication of a landmark public-private partnership report interpreting the NIST cybersecurity framework for the telecom industry in 2015.

Text-to-911, Framework for Next Generation 911 Deployment (December 2012) - Supervised rulemaking proceeding proposing framework for wireless carrier implementation of text-to-911, to provide access to 911 for people with hearing and speech disabilities and in situations where a voice 911 call is infeasible or could endanger the caller. (Policy Statement and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking adopted January, 2013).

Text-to-911, "Bounceback" Order, Facilitating the Deployment of Text-to-911 and Other Generation 911 Applications (May 2013) - Supervised proceeding in which FCC ordered carriers to send a "bounceback" message when a consumer attempts to send an emergency text where text-to-911 has not yet been deployed, as a consumer protection during transition to text-to-911.

Implementation of Public Safety Spectrum Act (Ongoing) - Supervised FCC role in implementation of statutory framework for creation of a nationwide public safety broadband network, including licensing of FirstNet (November 2012) and adoption of technical rules for the public safety broadband spectrum (October 2013).

Report to Congress on Next Generation 911, Legal and Regulatory Framework for Generation 911 Services (February 2013) - Supervised preparation and submission of FCC's report, as required by Congress, containing FCC's recommendations for creating a comprehensive statutory and regulatory framework to facilitate the transition of the current 911 system to a Next Generation 911 system, and incentivize states to become early adopters.

911 Location Accuracy (Ongoing) - Supervised Bureau actions to develop framework and build factual record for improving automatic location of 911 calls, particularly from indoor locations. Actions included initiating an indoor location test bed project conducted by CSRIC, holding a public workshop on 911 location accuracy in November 2013, collecting and publishing aggregate 911 call data from multiple states and jurisdictions, and commencing preparation of a further notice of proposed rulemaking to improve location information. (Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking adopted February, 2013).

National Emergency Alert System Test Report, Strengthening the Emergency Alert System (EAS): Lessons Learned from the Nationwide EAS Test (April 2013) - Oversaw and released FCC report assessing the results of the nationwide test of the Emergency Alert System (EAS) conducted in 2011, and presenting recommendations for future action.

Emergency Alert System Public Notice, Public Safety and Homeland Security Seeks Comment Regarding Equipment and Operational Issues Identified following the first Nationwide Test of the Emergency Alert System (September 2013) - Public Notice seeking input on technical improvements to EAS based on recommendations in the EAS Test Report.
