

Lauren Kozakiewicz

PO Box 760
Caroga Lake, NY 12032
518-441-8359

History Dept. SS 109A
University at Albany SUNY
1400 Washington Ave
Albany, NY 12222
518-442-5325

lkozakiewicz@albany.edu

Education

Ph.D. - History, University at Albany, SUNY, Albany, NY 2006

Areas of Specialization: American History, Politics & Gender

M.A. –History, Fordham University, Bronx, NY. Specialization: Medieval Europe

B.A. – History, College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, MA.

Academic Experience

- Lecturer in History, University at Albany, SUNY 2006-present.

Administrative Positions/Experience

- History, Liaison, University in the High School Program, University at Albany, 2006-present.
- Assistant to the Vice President for Research, University at Albany, 1987-1996.
- Assistant Dean, College of Humanities & Fine Arts, University at Albany, 1981-1987.

Academic Recognition/Service

- Conference Co-founder & Committee Member Researching New York, 1999 through 2019

Recipient:

- University at Albany Faculty Research Award Program Grant for the project “The Role of NYS Women Legislators in Shaping the Policy Agenda: Exploring the Political Development of Women Legislators from 1919-2012”, 2012-2014.
- Distinguished Doctoral Dissertation Award, College of Arts & Sciences, University at Albany, SUNY, 2007.
- Gilder-Lehrman Institute of American History, NYC, NY, Dissertation Fellowship, 2002-2003
- Larry J. Hackman Research Fellowship, Awarded by the New York State Archives and Archives Partnership Trust for dissertation research using the resources of the New York State Archives, 2002-2003.

Publications and Presentations

- “Ladies Day at the Capitol,” virtual presentation through the New York State Library, February 2, 2023.
- Ladies; Day at the Capitol: Women in the New York State Legislature 1919-1992, SUNY Press: November 2022.
- “Women in New York are Hardly a Monolithic Bloc,” Op-Ed, Albany Times Union, October 17, 2022, <https://www.timesunion.com/opinion/article/Commentary-Women-in-New-York-are-hardly-a-17508341.php>
- “Progressive Legacies for the Aspiring Woman Politician & Those Who Study Her,” SHGAPE Blogpost Essay, Summer 2021, <https://www.shgape.org/progressive-legacies-for-the-aspiring-woman-politician/>

- Academic Facilitator, NYS Council on the Humanities Program, “Re-Examining the Right to Vote: women's activism and the suffrage movement”: October 6, 20, 27, 2020.
- Interviewee, WMHT documentary program “Suffrage and the Vote in NY”, segments 2 & 3, aired July 17 & 24, 2020 on New York Now television program.
- Panel Discussant, WMHT online viewing party to preview the PBS documentary “The Vote”, June 30, 2020.
- Chair/Comment, “U.S. Women’s Political Activism in the Early Twentieth Century,” New England Historical Association Fall Conference, Roger Williams University, October 26, 2019.
- “Suffrage’s Second Act: Women in the NYS Legislature 1919-1930,” New York History Vol. 100 No. 1 (Summer 2019): 51-74.
- “The Price of Doing Business: Women and the Political Power Structure in New York, 1933-1968,” New England Historical Association Fall Conference, University of Connecticut, October 27, 2018.
- Academic Facilitator, New York State Humanities Council Grant Program. Topic: Votes for Women. February – May 2018
- “The Trial of Susan B. Anthony,” Northern District Bar Association Judges Conference, Lake Placid, NY, September 14, 2017.
- Book Review, Regina Anderson Andrews, Renaissance Librarian, New York History, Vol 97 No 3-4, (summer/fall 2016): 477-78.
- Panel Moderator, “Labors of Love: Academic & Community Partnerships in the Service of Local History,” Researching New York Conference, University at Albany, November 2015.
- “Redressing the Imbalance: Incorporating Women Legislators into New York’s Political History,” Researching New York Conference, University at Albany, SUNY November 2014.
- Session Chair and Comment, “Women’s Economic Independence,” Researching New York Conference, Univ. at Albany, SUNY, November 2013.
- “Teaching New York History,” The Hudson River Valley Review Autumn 2013: 85-91. The article is adapted from a panel discussion at the 2012 Research New York Conference.
- Panel Member, “Challenges in Teaching New York State History at the College Level,” Researching New York Conference, Univ. at Albany, SUNY, November 2012.
- To Pure for Politics? Women, Non-Partisanship and the Hughes Campaign Train of 1916,” part of the panel Women and Electoral Politics in the Long 1920s, American Historical Association 125th Annual Conference, January 8, 2011.
- Editor, American Visions New York Voices: A U.S. Reader from the Empire State, Vol. I and II. Kendall Hunt Publishing, 2010.
- “Blazer of the Campaign Trail,” New York Archives Magazine, Vol. 8. No. 1 (Summer 2008): 22-25.
- “Woman’s Christian Temperance Union,” Encyclopedia of New York State, Syracuse University Press, 2005.
- “Smoothing the Way: Women’s Political Clubs and the Formation of the Modern Woman Politician 1900-1940,” Conference on New York State History, Cooperstown, NY, June 2007.
- “The Woman’s Political Club Model, an Analysis of Women’s Organizations in the New York State Republican Party, 1910-1937,” Part of a panel on Women in Politics, “Crashing the Party,” for the Social Science History Association Conference, November 2006, Minneapolis, MN.
- “Lessons Learned From a Political Non-Success: Florence Knapp and The New York Census Scandal of 1928.” Part of a panel on Women's Party Politics from the Grassroots to the Capitol, Social Science History Association Conference, November 2003, Baltimore, Md.