Note: The U.S. attorney is the highest ranking law enforcement official in each of the 94 Federal judicial districts. Each U.S. attorney, under the direction of the U.S. Attorney General, is responsible for establishing law enforcement priorities, and for carrying out the prosecution, litigation, and appellate responsibilities within their respective districts. Each U.S. attorney also is the chief litigator representing the United States in civil judicial proceedings in the district. U.S. attorneys direct and supervise the work of the assistant U.S. attorneys and staff of the district's offices.

<sup>a</sup>These data represent full-time equivalent employees and may include allocated positions that were vacant.

<sup>b</sup>Total hours U.S. attorneys devoted to court-related activities including criminal and civil cases in district, magistrate, and appellate courts, special hearings, grand jury proceedings, witness preparation, and court travel time.
