Note: See Note, table 4.33.2004. This table displays data by the arresting Federal agency. The arresting agency may be different from the Federal agency that initiated the investigation involving the arrestee.

The Homeland Security Act of 2002 that established the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and reorganized several Federal agencies took effect in March 2003. The Immigration and Naturalization Service, U.S. Customs Service, and U.S. Secret Service were moved to DHS. The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives was moved to the U.S. Department of Justice. These changes are reflected in the fiscal year 2004 data. For methodology and definitions of terms, see Appendix 11.
