Note: These data are compiled by a year-end census of prisoners in State and Federal correctional institutions. Data collection is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics. As of Dec. 31, 2001, the transfer of responsibility for sentenced felons from the District of Columbia to the Federal Bureau of Prisons was completed. The District of Columbia no longer operates a prison system. Some data have been revised by the Source and may differ from previous editions of SOURCEBOOK. For information on methodology and definitions of terms, see Appendix 15.

^aBased on the total number of prisoners under State or Federal jurisdiction, by jurisdiction and region.

^bNot applicable; prisons and jails form an integrated system.

^cBeginning in 2009, data include prisoners out to court and therefore are not comparable to earlier years.
