

2021 Spring Benevolent Association Graduate Research Grant Recipients

College of Arts and Sciences

Chen, Kaori

Anthropology

"Ethnography of Contemporary Weaving Practices in the United States - An Exploration of Special Aspects of Creativity, Women's Activities, and Aging"

Huang, Jingyi

Psychology

"Effect of hope on contingent faculty members' engagement in professional development activities"

Jin, Shirley

Communication

"Classroom management as situated management of participation"

Luneau, Tyson

History

"Investigating Environmental Perceptions of Russian and French Colonial Peripheries"

Grzelka, Michalina

Anthropology

"Disability, Gender, and Kinship Caregiving in Postsocialist Poland"

Breiner, Courtney

Psychology

"A Brief Parent-Training Intervention for Avoidant-Restrictive Food Intake Disorder"

School of Education

Huang, Rong

Educational & Counseling Psychology

"Effects of Early Bilingualism on Theory of Mind Development among Children in Economic Adversity"

School of Public Health

Jamro-Comer, Erica

Epidemiology

"Family planning, fertility, and pregnancy maintenance after Radical Trachelectomy RT"

School of Social Welfare

Seng, Tola

"Intergenerational Trauma and Resilience: A Mixed Methods Study among Cambodian Americans"