

Multicultural Voices in Crime Fiction: Writers of Color on History, Genre, and Craft
About the Participants

Symposium Host

Frankie Y Bailey

<https://www.albany.edu/scj/faculty/frankie-bailey>

<https://www.frankieybailey.com/>

Keynote Speaker

Kimberly Johnson

<https://around.uoregon.edu/content/kimberly-johnson-named-permanent-vice-provost-uess>

<https://www.hollywoodreporter.com/tv/tv-news/this-is-my-america-tv-series-hbo-max-1234969815/>

History in Crime Fiction Panelists

David Heska Wanbli Weiden

<https://davidweiden.com/>

Naomi Hirahara

<https://www.naomihirahara.com/>

Sujata Massey

<https://sujatamassey.com/>

Richie Narvaez

<https://www.richienarvaez.com/>

Co-Founders of Crime Writers of Color (CWoC)

Kellye Garrett

<https://kellyegarrett.com/>

Gigi Pandian

<https://www.gigipandian.com/>

Gender and Subgenres

Alafair Burke

<http://alafairburke.com/>

Jennifer Chow

<https://jenniferjchow.com/>

Alex Segura

<http://www.alexsegura.com/>

Sandra SG Wong

<https://sgwong.com/>

The Roots of Black Pulp Fiction

Dr. Kinohi Nishikawa (Princeton University)

<https://aas.princeton.edu/people/kinohi-nishikawa>

Gary Phillips

<https://gdphilips.com/>

Noir Fiction

Christopher Chambers

https://aalbc.com/authors/author.php?author_name=Christopher+Chambers

<https://thrive.princeton.edu/speaker/chris-chambers-82/>

Steph Cha

<http://stephcha.com/>

Tracy Clark

<https://tracyclarkbooks.com/>

Stella Oni

<https://stellaonithewriter.com/>