

Challenges for the 21st Century Students Enrolled

The courses in the category of Challenges for the 21st Century address a variety of issues focusing on challenges and opportunities in such areas as cultural diversity and pluralism, science and technology, social interaction, ethics, global citizenship, and others, and may include interdisciplinary approaches. Courses in this category address the historical roots and contemporary manifestations of challenges that lie ahead as students move into the world beyond the University at Albany.

Percentage of Graduate Students from Underrepresented Backgrounds

Underrepresented is defined as those that identify as African American, Hispanic, Native American, or Native Hawaiian

Diversity & Inclusion

Driving excellence in everything that we do

Percent of Faculty from Underrepresented Backgrounds

● % New Full-time Faculty Hires ● % Total FT Faculty

Underrepresented is defined as those that identify as African American, Hispanic, Native American, or Native Hawaiian

