WELCOME BACK TO SPRING SEMESTER!

What's inside this months' issue?

Inside you’ll find new spring funding opportunities and their deadlines along with information about our 18th Annual Student Conference!

Make sure to apply for the conference by March 19th, 2021. In addition to this newsletter, check out our website and CURCE Blackboard Community Page for resources on how to write an abstract & how to create a presentation.

Also, read to learn about our Spring 2021 events and brand new funding programs to assist you in your undergraduate research journey, virtual conferences, and ways to get involved in virtual & hybrid research this semester!
18TH ANNUAL STUDENT CONFERENCE

Save the date!
As we continue to adapt as a campus community to the COVID-19 pandemic, CURCE has determined the safest manner in which to host the 18th Annual Student Conference is to do so in a virtual environment.
No matter if your research is from a course project, as a research assistant, through an internship, or the numerous other ways UAlbany students engage in research, scholarship & creative activities, your are encouraged to present at the conference! We will help you throughout the application process with Abstract Writing, Virtual Research Posters, Preparing your Oral presentation & recording your presentation!
