Author & UAlbany alum Ryan Smithson talks about his life, his book and his experiences in Iraq. Free admission

Wednesday, November 1 at 7:30pm

Chicago's Griffin Theatre Company brings Smithson's book to the stage in an unflinchingly honest portrayal of the war in Iraq. Tickets required

Inspired by the patriotism following 9/11, Smithson enlisted in the Army at the age of 17, underwent the disciplinary harshness of basic training and lived through the fire of combat at just 19 years of age.
